Addingham Neighbourhood Plan – Consultation end date 9th January 2019

Land owner : Mr

Agent :

Section 4 of Comment Form

1 The housing allocations in the Plan do not comply with the Core Strategy and need for 200 dwellings.

2 The Settlement Boundary should be slightly extended ( as shown on Plan 1 attached) to allow for housing growth and would form part of the Green Belt Review for the District.

3 The existing policy within the built up area should remain and be numbered 7.1

4 A new section 7.2 should read

“7.2 The existing Settlement Boundary shall be extended on the A65 frontage to allow for housing growth with access from Mount Pleasant/ Stockinger Lane. The extension is shown on Plan 1. This area would then be subject to Green Belt Review with a recommendation that the land be deleted from the Green Belt and made available for housing. These fields have no impact on the village, the environment or views from Main Street. “
