The Bradford Local Plan

Subject:

Development of Ilkley

Comment:

I have studied the map on display in the library and am concerned about the impact of 800 houses that will have on local services and infrastructure, as well as the loss of green spaces. Ilkley already has oversubscribed schools, traffic congestion and parking problems. The pressure that another 800 families will put on the existing infrastructure may push it to breaking point.

I would urge the Council to take a long-term view here and sort out the infrastructure - a new secondary school to take pressure off L&S, a plan to alleviate congestion + a coherent parking plan - before expanding the town so dramatically.
