The Bradford Local Plan

Subject:

Increased pressure on local resources, especially the road system

Comment:

The local road system is already inadequate, as witnessed by long queues to pass through the town, especially in summer. There is no prospect of a bypass.

Additional housing will inevitably increase this pressure, reducing the attractiveness of the town for tourists, whose income is vital to the well-being of the town. In the absence of measures to deal with this problem, any proposals
