Proposed extra housing for Ikley

Comment:

I strongly object to proposed plans for 800 new houses in the Ikley area for several reasons

- The infrastructure is not able to cope with current demands let alone the demands of 800 more households. Ikley Grammar School is bursting at the seams, primary schools are over-subcribed, the A65 is already congested, trains are overcrowded as Ilkley is a commuter town and many people work in Leeds or Bradford.

The Greenbelt and Ilkley beautiful countryside are what make it unique & what attracts the tourists on which many of the towns businesses depend. Government policies claim they want to protect these sites not build on them. The essential "feel" of Ilkley would be utterly destroyed by the proposals.
