Development of agricultural land at Heben Ghyll, Ribblesdale - proposal to build 400 houses. Comment:

The location in question was previously between a meadow and woodland. There is some woodland around the site and the traffic problem resulting from the 400 cars and commercial vehicles ^{vehicles} using the site will be significant.

Additionally, the infrastructure surrounding the site is of a low quality standard - the road

Money, please are completely full and Ilkley Gyms are almost as already over capacity. It seems that additional roads will be built from out of Ilkley (possibly into Armley) causing traffic situations for both new and existing businesses.

A major problem exists with the current RT12 formula which not only just adds a range of "policies"
