PROPOSALS FOR NEW HOMES
IN ILLKLEY

Comment:

Illkley is a universally loved small town in the heart of Wharfedale. As such, it provides benefits, not only for its residents but also for the many visitors seeking recreation and open space. Many of these visitors are from nearby Leeds and Bradford.

These proposals would increase the sense of density and scale in Illkley and also raise questions about the ability of infrastructure and local habitats for wildlife -

ie. whether they could cope.

I am constantly struck by the number of empty flats and brownfield sites (eg. textile mills
in Bradford ripe for conversion to residential use) in Leeds and Bradford

Please do not ruin Ilkley!
